Please answer with three complete sentences for each question.

When you hear the word “discernment” what do you think of?

Has a decision ever been clear to you in life? What was it? What made it easy to make?

Have you ever made a decision without a clear mindset? How did that lack of clarity impact your decision?

Do you ever think about discernment in the long term? How could that mindset change your approach to discernment?

What could it look like for you to begin discerning your vocation now?
